SQUARE BEATS

2 October Saturday @ 1-3pm

SUNGA - SONGS OF POLYNESIA

Sunga's music is a soothing, sensuous fusion of soul, classical, smooth funk, Jazz, traditional and contemporary Polynesian rhythms and songs - delivered with a whole lot of alofa (Love).

TRIBALINCS

Tribalincs' music can only be described as fresh and unique. An exciting style that encompasses jazz, soul, gospel, rock and funk inspired by band's Samoan heritage and their birthplace Aotearoa (NZ). These musicians sing of their experiences growing up in Aotearoa, of their trials, successes, relationships and the importance of strong cultural and family ties.

6 November Saturday @ 1-3pm

WARAKO MUSICA

Australia's most energetic and dynamic African music and dance band. Lead by internationally acclaimed African singers Passi Jo and Tchico Tchicaya, Warako Musica was formed in 1998, and has toured and played to packed audiences across Australia. Together with African and Australian musicians, they combine sensual Rumba and African Soukous grooves, with Cuban and Salsa styles. Lively lead guitar played by Tchico, and a relentless rhythm section keep audiences non stop dancing. The band showcases some of the best, most passionate Soukous dancing performed in Melbourne.

4 December Saturday @ 1-3pm

AZUCAR

Azucar is a dynamic 5 piece Latin group, playing a range of infectious grooves, including classic salsa, cha cha, cumbia and merengue, guaranteed to get a crowd up and dancing. Their high energy performances and tight ensemble playing have been wowing audiences around Australia and internationally for the last eight years. The band's members have toured extensively, highlights including Madrid, Hong Kong, Noumea, Shanghai, Tokyo, and festivals all over Australia including Womadelaide, Melbourne International Festival, Sydney Bacardi Festival and Alice Springs Desert Festival. Azucar's members are highly sought after in the music scene and feature in some of Australia's most eminent bands, such as Rumberos, Los Cabrones and Pachuco Playboys to name just a few.
