

Presented by Multicultural Arts Victoria & ABC RADIO NATIONAL in association with the City of Melbourne

MUSIC DELI CELEBRATION CD CONCERT

Sunday 25th February, 2007

4.00 – 6.30pm

ABC, Southbank Centre

Ground floor, Southbank Boulevard, Southbank

Join presenter Paul Petran at the launch this exciting new compilation CD celebrating 20 years of ABC Radio National's eclectic music program Music Deli with featured artists:

Zulya and the Children of the Underground – performing original music inspired by Zulya's Tatar and Russian heritage

Ria Soemardjo - exquisite West Javanese vocals

Jali Buba Kuyateh and Diyaa Looloo - be transported by these captivating performers & feel the centuries old spirit of the Senegalese griot.

ABC Music Deli presents a wide variety of music styles focussing on live performances recorded in studios, and at concerts and festivals around Australia. Australian musicians—new, emerging and established—are a major part of the program. Variety and the excitement of live music is what the program is all about and the concert will be recorded LIVE and then later broadcast, so come along and help Paul Petran and Music Deli celebrate!
