

Presented by Multicultural Arts Victoria & ABC RADIO NATIONAL, Music Deli

A Deli Merry Christmas Concert

One unique concert. Four outstanding culturally diverse choirs.

Friday 7th December, 7.30 – 10.00pm

Iwaki Auditorium, ABC Southbank Centre
Ground Floor, Southbank Blvd, Southbank, Melbourne

Be transported by the evocative power of world music. A concert featuring Australian based choirs from Latin America, Bosnia, Tonga and West Papua. Performing original and traditional songs, these artists highlight the incredible quality and wealth of musical talent in this country.

This unique concert features four outstanding culturally diverse performances and is a rare opportunity for the people of Melbourne to experience, in optimum acoustic conditions, the musical traditions of some of our unique cultures now based in Melbourne.

Coro America Latina – Sublime South American songs and carols

Sevdalinka – Beautiful Balkan tones and voices.

ETAGS – Angelic voices from the friendly island of Tonga.

West Papuan Choir - Traditional rhythms and melodies from West Papua.

ABC Music Deli presents a wide variety of music styles focussing on live performances recorded in studios, and at concerts and festivals around Australia. Australian musicians — new, emerging and established — are a major part of the program. Variety and the excitement of live music is what the program is all about and the concert will be recorded LIVE and then later broadcast, so come along and help Paul Petran and celebrate with A Deli Merry Christmas!

Tickets: Presale $15, MAV Members $12 Bookings: 03 9417 6777
Door: $20 full and $18 conc.

For further information contact Meg Larkin at Multicultural Arts Victoria - 03 9417 6777 or email office@multiculturalarts.com.au

Proudly supported by Arts Victoria and City of Melbourne

