

The Arts Centre in association with Multicultural Arts Victoria as part of MIX IT UP presents...

SO FRENCHY SO CHIC with Nouvelle Vague and Emilie Simon

Fri 6 Jul, 8pm

Hamer Hall, the Arts Centre, 100 St Kilda Road

Two of France's most successful artists, Nouvelle Vague and Emilie Simon, as featured on the top selling unofficial soundtrack to the French Film Festival So Frenchy So Chic, come together for one alluring concert.

Geniuses of reinterpretation, Nouvelle Vague, have achieved worldwide fame for their rearrangements of 80s post-punk tracks. Percussion and acoustic guitars topped with sensual feminine voices, accordions and steel drums are introduced to tracks by Bauhaus, Siouxsie and the Banshees, New Order, Billy Idol, Echo and The Bunnymen, Blondie and more.

Electropop chanteuse Emilie Simon, as heard on Triple J, makes her Australia debut. A multi-awarding winning artist and an European phenomenon, Emilie's complex, flirty and sultry vocals earn her the reputation of the "French Bjork".

Free public program from 7pm.

Tix: $30-$55 Bookings: 1300 136 166 or at <http://www.ticketmaster.com.au/>