

Produced by Ausdance Victoria & Multicultural Arts Victoria

TERRAIN

Multicultural Contemporary Dance Festival

Terrain is supported by the City of Yarra, Besen Family Foundation, Arts Victoria, Victorian Multicultural Commission and the Australian Government through the Australia Council, its arts funding and advisory body. Rachael Wallis' residency is supported by Arts NT and the Independent Support Fund

Produced by

Partners

DANCEHOUSE D

Supported by

Terrain pics by Six 6 Photography www.six6photography.com.au
BB08 pic: Sharma Vrhowec by ©2007 Michael Prior www.michaelprior.com
Design by Janette Hoe jhoe@iprimus.com.au

THU 6 – SAT 8 NOV 2008

Produced by Ausdance Victoria & Multicultural Arts Victoria

TERRAIN

Multicultural Contemporary
Dance Festival

INFORMATION

www.ausdance.org.au/vic

www.multiculturalarts.com.au

www.dancehouse.com.au

Celebrating contemporary dance by artists from culturally diverse backgrounds, bringing attention to the extraordinary range of artists who make up the Victorian dance landscape, Terrain is held biennially and is an opportunity to experience some of the most exciting new dance-making in Melbourne.

All Terrain events are at Dancehouse, 150 Princes Street, North Carlton

PERFORMANCES

Thu 6, Fri 7 & Sat 8 Nov @ 7pm

New choreographic works by Rakini Devi, Alison Halit, Sun Ping & Tina Yong, Lamine Sonko, Rachael Wallis and Feng Feng Wang
Lighting Designer: Dori Bicchierai

TICKETS

$20 full / $15 Ausdance/MAV/Dancehouse member or concession
Bookings on 9347 2860

TERRAIN FREE EVENTS

DANCE CLASSES

Sat 8 Nov from 11am - 4pm

Sample free classes in Tai Chi, Bollywood, African, Hip Hop and Latin with festival artists and special guests. Suitable for children and adults of all ages, and no experience is required. Check websites for schedule.

DISCUSSION FORUM

In the theatre immediately following the Fri 7 performance.

INDIGENOUS RESIDENCY

In the 2 weeks leading up to the festival, NT artist Rachael Wallis, a resident of East Arnhem Land, is making new work in collaboration with NT artists Jonathon Munyarryun and Arnold Marika, and Victorian artists. See the outcomes of this exciting residency in the performance season. There will also be a masterclass for all interested Indigenous and non-Indigenous dancers on Fri 7 Nov from 10am to 12 noon.
Bookings required on 9347 2860.

TERRAIN SUPPORTS

BB08#2

JOINING THE DOTS: SHAPES WITHIN LIFE

Beyond Butoh (BB0#) series has been directed, curated and facilitated by Tony Yap and Yumi Umiumare since 2001 to provide the local Butoh community an opportunity to investigate, explore and stretch the limits of what we understand as the intrinsic meaning of Butoh. The long-term vision for this series is a grander scale festival encompassing all idiosyncratic interpretation of Butoh in performance from local and international artists.

A Butoh event facilitated by Yumi Umiumare and Janette Hoe

Sat 22 Nov @ 8pm

Sun 23 Nov @ 5pm

VENUE Oki-Do Centre 3 Waterloo Street Carlton

TICKETS $10 full / $8 conc

INFORMATION www.yumi.com.au

