

OPPORTUNITY FOR CONTEMPORARY CULTURALLY DIVERSE ARTISTS

CULTURAL INTERSECTIONS RESIDENCY SERIES

Expressions of Interest are sought for four short creative development residencies at Fitzroy Town Hall. Cultural Intersections is a new partnership of Ausdance Victoria, Multicultural Arts Victoria and the City of Yarra.

Who is this opportunity for?

Contemporary culturally diverse artists with an idea to explore, where cultures intersect and dance or movement is one of the art forms involved.

What is provided?

Free rehearsal space for 1 week at Fitzroy Town Hall* (Monday – Friday, 9am-5pm) and showing venue. Block 1 weeks beginning: 24 August, 31 August with showing 4 September; Block 2 weeks beginning 19 October and 26 October with showing 31 October.

$1,500 seed funding plus marketing support

What kind of work is suitable?

Experimentation with new processes for making artistic work; and creative development of new intercultural performance projects.

Applications from both emerging and established artists are welcome.

Cultural Intersections residencies are for new work only.

How to apply

Send a proposal of maximum 2 pages including:

Synopsis or concept

Background of the artist/s involved

Artistic aims of project

Contact details for one key liaison person

Expressions of Interest close on Friday 12 June 2009

Proposals will be assessed by staff of Ausdance Victoria, MAV and City of Yarra, and outcomes advised by 26 June.

Send to Ausdance (Vic) Inc., PO Box 1472, Collingwood VIC 3066 or Multicultural Arts Victoria, PO Box 1402 Collingwood VIC 3066

Or email to office@multiculturalarts.com.au

If you have any questions, Ausdance on 9417 1200 or MAV on 9417 6777.

Notes about Fitzroy Town Hall:*

- Large open space with proscenium arch stage at one end
 - Wooden floor
 - No theatre lighting or sound system built in
- Space can be viewed by appointment with MAV or Ausdance Vic