Experience Djan Djan & Dya Singh in a cross-cultural fusion of contemporary Indian sounds.

DJAN DJAN

First coming together in a recording studio in 2008, Djan Djan features kora player Mamadou Diabate (Mali), guitarist Jeff Lang (Australia) and tabla player Bobby Singh (India/Australia). Individually recognised for their musical talents their new collaboration, Djan Djan, is quickly building a reputation for astonishing live performances and recordings. Mamadou Diabate, the cousin of legendary musician Toumani Diabate, is a master kora player. Bobby Singh is one of Australia's leading tabla players, and Jeff Lang is an internationally renowned virtuosic guitarist. Djan Djan create musical alchemy drawing together their formidable musical skills.

"Diabate, Lang & Singh meld melliflously..... this almost definitive world musical trio breathtakingly demonstrates what synergy really means" Australian Stage

DYA SINGH

Dya Singh, a renowned world music group, base their music on Sikh (spiritual), Punjabi and North Indian origins, while embracing musical influences from many parts of the globe including blues, jazz, folk, country and Australian indigenous sounds. Headed by Dya Singh himself, the group has produced twenty albums in seventeen years and was named 'South Australia's World Music Group of the Year' in 1999. Dya Singh was also awarded 'Male Artiste of the Year'(2000) by the Australian World Music Organisation. With incredible vocals and accomplished musicians of various cultural backgrounds, the music of Dya Singh is breathtaking.

"The talent of the performers, the range of the music they played, the deep spirituality which infused their performance, all made this a memorable evening" Sydney Morning Herald

Enjoy free pre-show celebration of contemporary Indian culture including performances by Afro Dizzi Act, Flamenco Kathak Fusion, Legless Lizards, and visual arts by Maitreyi Rey and Sudeep Lingamneni.
