

MEDIA RELEASE

Tuesday 8th December 09

URBAN PROSE – Compilation CD Launch @ Signal FREE CONCERT IN THE HEART OF M-CITY

Multicultural Arts Victoria, North Richmond Community Health Limited, and The Arts Centre proudly present:

The Urban Prose compilation CD Launch, featuring the freshest new talent rising up in Melbourne's multicultural Hip Hop and Urban Music community

Urban Prose features 19 tracks of original music created by up-coming MC's and vocalists emerging from Melbourne and Sydney's underground Hip Hop and Urban Music scene. Representing diverse cultures from the horn of Africa all the way to Samoa these inspiring young artists speak from the heart, from their mother tongue, and deliver their stories with pride. Their flows are hypnotic and energy on stage, an experience not to be missed.

So don't sleep on the Urban Prose CD launch, make sure you are there to witness history in the making with over twenty MC's, Vocalists, dancers and performers coming together for a night of revolutionary sounds in the heart of Melbourne City. Special guests also gracing the Urban Prose stage are Legacy Fam representing Krump culture, Jess Harlen, DJ Surrender, and Hosts Mantra and MC Momo.

The Urban Prose CD launch kicks off from 7:30pm – 10:30pm, this Friday the 11th December at Signal Youth Arts Centre located on Northbank, right behind Flinders Street Station along the river.

The Urban Prose project is supported by The City of Melbourne, the Australia Council for the Arts, Vichealth, Arts Victoria, APRA, and the William Paxton Charitable Fund, managed by Perpetual.

For interviews and media enquiries please contact:

Cat Sweeney

Multicultural Arts Victoria

Youth Officer

9417 6777

youth@multiculturalarts.com.au

www.multiculturalarts.com.au