DEBUT ALBUM LAUNCH

BLAK ROOTS

Combining some of the rarest vocal talent to hit our shores in recent times and an all original repertoire of soulful African Reggae tunes, Blak Roots is taking the reggae genre in Melbourne to new heights. Led by African born vocal extraordinaire William Kadima, Blak Roots formed in early 2008 bringing together an eclectic mix of talented artists from some of the planet's most exotic locations. Blak Roots have created an exciting musical brew that truly represents African Reggae music- a razor tight mix of driving reggae rhythms, refreshingly sweet vocals and African inspired harmonies. Since forming this unique act has become a regular on the Melbourne live music scene riveting audiences with its high energy shows and the dynamic presence of William and Aminata - two powerful and original African reggae soul singers. And now finally they release their much anticipated debut album in this special one off show.

VOX CONGO

Special guests Vox Congo draws on the rich traditions of modern and folk music from across Congo, Central Africa playing soukous, zouk, rumba, gospel, reggae, aguaya and pende folk rhythms and more. Beginning in their home town Kinshasa, in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, the members of Vox Congo formed an elite musical group employed to perform at government events. In 1998 the members of the band found themselves in the middle of a horrific civil war. They fled travelling through Kenya and then to Malaysia performing their music along the way. In 2002, they were sponsored to come to Australia and have been delighting Australian audiences since.
